UMBRA GROUP and EMS: strategic collaboration for mechatronic excellence

Albanella, July 29, 2025 – UMBRAGROUP announces the acquisition of a majority stake in E.M.S. – Electro Motor Solutions S.r.l., a company based in Albanella (SA), specializing in the design and production of high-performance electric motors and electromagnetic brakes. The transaction represents a milestone in the Group's strategic growth path, strengthening its positioning as an agile, global partner for motion solutions.

The integration of EMS enables UMBRAGROUP to expand its know-how in the fields of integrated electronics, sensing and motion control, accelerating the development of intelligent mechatronic solutions for the aerospace, industrial and defense sectors.

Thanks to the complementary nature of EMS's competencies and those already present in the Group, the deal fosters the construction of an integrated technology ecosystem in which each player plays a key role. UMBRAGROUP aims to be the problem-solving partner for motion solutions, working in close synergy with customers and partners to anticipate the challenges of the future. The integration of EMS's capabilities with the Group's know-how is a decisive step in equipping the company with the motion technologies needed for safe and sustainable evolution.

"The entry of EMS into the Umbra Group, besides being a strategic move, is also the result of a long collaboration and a relationship of mutual esteem. – comments Reno Ortolani, Chairman of the Board of UMBRAGROUP – It is a decisive step toward building a complete mechatronic ecosystem capable of facing global challenges with expertise and vision."

Edoardo Vito, CEO of EMS, also comments on the transaction with enthusiasm: "Our partnership with UMBRAGROUP starts from a long time ago; we appreciated and knew the Group's farsightedness through the gaze of the unforgettable Eng. Valter Baldaccini, and today standing side by side with those who live work by anticipating its evolution makes us aware of a privilege that we will continue to honor with team spirit and competence."
